CHAMBER of COMMERCE
LAFAYETTE

Dear Friends:

The Lafayette Chamber of Commerce is pleased to present this Business Directory to you. Whether you are already a local resident or are a newcomer to our City we think you will find this local guide very helpful as you shop in or visit the Lafayette area.

As President of the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce I am pleased to represent a voluntary, non-profit organization of business-people working together to improve and assist business as well as striving to build a better community.

We hope that you will look first to the businesses listed in this directory as you plan your shopping and service needs. These merchants have shown their commitment to this community through their affiliation with organizations such as the Chamber of Commerce.

Remember that because Lafayette is a retail-sales-tax-based city, shopping locally builds a stronger economy for our City.

Please feel welcome to use the resources that the Chamber of Commerce has to offer and to stop by our offices at 1003 Oak Hill Road!

With kindest regards,

Kent Parker

city government

Lafayette has been incorporated since 1968. It is governed by an elected, non-paid, five-member Council which is assisted by an appointed, paid City Manager. This governing body exhibits special concerns to assure a safe and prosperous quality of life for its residents.

The five council members run at large for their positions and serve four-year terms. The mayor is selected from among the Council and serves a one-year term.

The City Manager serves as chief executive officer and is responsible for the day-to-day administration of City Affairs. The City Attorney, also appointed by the Council, advises and represents the City and Council in all legal affairs.

Lafayette Chamber of Commerce

1985-86 Theme:
"Progress Through Communication"

The Lafayette Chamber of Commerce has been the primary representative agency of the City's business community since its formation in 1947. Through its members and program of work the Chamber promotes Lafayette as a great place to live and shop while representing business and its vital role in the healthy economy of our City.

Through the financial contributions of its members, the Chamber is able to maintain a City Information Bureau providing maps, demographics, newcomer kits and other information to visitors and City residents. The Chamber offices are located at 1003 Oak Hill Road and are open Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The Chamber publishes a monthly newsletter and sponsors a number of promotions and activities every year in its effort to enhance the image of Lafayette.

Any Lafayette business is encouraged to join the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce. For information on regular meetings and the many benefits of membership, contact the Chamber at 284-7404.

community events

Many entertainment and cultural events are sponsored annually by the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce and other City clubs and organizations for the enjoyment of Lafayette residents.

Concours d'Elegance de Lafayette
Held every July since 1971. This gathering of unique and extraordinary classic and unique automobiles has been sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and has raised over $40,000 for Lafayette charities.

Bastille Day
Hosted by the City's unique "Langeac" Society which is organized to encourage the cultural study of France and assist in relations between Lafayette and Langeac—its French sister-city—a picnic is held every summer on "Bastille Day." The event is usually held at the Lafayette Reservoir and highlights the reenactment of the "storming of the Bastille" from French history.

Lafayesta Days
Dating back to the early 1900s a fiesta was held annually in this community to benefit whatever the biggest need of the time was. Parades have highlighted the continuation of this celebration and in recent years the Lafayesta, held in the form of a western barbecue and casino night, has benefited the Lafayette Community Center.

SOME QUESTIONS
we asked of
PETAR JAKOVINA

Owner of Petar's Restaurant

Q: What's the origin of the name?
A: Petar is Dalmatian for Peter. Jakovina (Yahkovina) means "strong wine" in Jugoslavian.

Q. Are you from Jugoslavia?
A. No, my family was, but I was born and raised in San Francisco.

Q. How did you get in the restaurant business?
A. In a round about way. I was a car parker at the Fairmont Hotel before and after my time in the service. In 1950 I got a job at the renowned 365 Club (a Las Vegas-type nightclub) in San Francisco as a car parker. Three months later Agustino "Bimbo" Giuntoli, the boss, made me one of his captains of the waiters. Four years later the boss made me the Maitre D'Hotel, the youngest maitre d' in the country in a major nightclub. I married my wife, Ellie, a dancer at the club, that same year.

Q. As a Maitre D' did you ever "sell" a table?
A. Absolutely not, although the boss used to refer to me as "the best maitre d' money can buy"

and
Joey Bishop nicknamed me "The Claw"

Q. Why did you open a restaurant in Lafayette?
A. I wanted to get into the restaurant business in a nice area (because San Francisco was getting strange) and Lafayette was perfect, and I was able to get Al Petrangelo, my head bartender, to help me open up, and that was 26 years ago.

Q. 26 years is a long time, are you the longest "still active" businessman in Lafayette?
A. No, Bill Magrath from Diamond K Supply Company is.

Q. What celebrities have you served?
A. I can't remember them all but Clint Walker, Tom Flores, Joey Bishop, Steven Boyd, Joe DiMaggio, Billy Martin, Alan Cranston, Don Ho, George Gobel, Robert Mitchum and the Prime Minister of Pakistan, to name some.

Q. Lastly, with all the years in the liquor business, do you indulge very much?
A. I've never been drunk, but I've been "overserved" on a few occasions.

Lafayette reservoir

Located off Mt. Diablo Blvd. on the west end of Lafayette, the Lafayette Reservoir was completed in 1933 to be used as a standby supply of drinking water for the use of the customers of East Bay Municipal Utility District (EBMUD). The 925-acre site with 1.4-billion gallon reservoir was opened to public recreation in 1966. Besides being used as an auxiliary water supply, the reservoir is a recreational area for hiking, fishing, boating and picnicking.

The recreation area is open year-round during daylight hours. Opening and closing times are posted on the gate. There is a daily parking fee for cars or a yearly permit may be purchased instead.

Fishing is free at the reservoir; only the usual state license requirements and bait restrictions apply. The State Department of Fish and Game plants many thousand catchable trout each year; the reservoir also contains bluegill, black bass, black crappie and several kinds of catfish.

Privately owned rowboats, canoes, kayaks and sailboats are allowed at the reservoir. There is a fee for boat registration. In addition, there are rowboats, pedal boats and electric boats for rent at the activity center on an hourly, half-day, or all-day basis for a fee. Sailboats are not available for rent.

community parks

Surrounding Lafayette are several community parks located in Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill and Concord. These offer a variety of picnic, hiking and other recreational activities. For details, see the accompanying chart.

Surrounding the reservoir are 135 picnic tables to accommodate families and small groups. Most picnic areas are located near the dam; others are scattered around the reservoir and are accessible by boat or on foot.

An area is set aside for large groups (50 or more) with prior reservations. The area can accommodate up to 250 people. There is a pre-paid reservation fee required. The reservation fee will be refunded if fifteen days' advance notice of cancellation is received.

The Rotary Amphitheater, with a small stage and seating for 150 people, may be reserved for weddings, day camp activities and other large-group use. There is no fee. The amphitheater is adjacent to the paved trail encircling the lake, about a 1-mile hike from the boathouse. No vehicles are allowed in the area.

Two distinctly different sets of trails encircle Lafayette Reservoir. The Rotary Club of Lafayette in conjunction with EBMUD has developed a self-guided Nature Trail around the paved path of the Lafayette Reservoir. The Nature Trail, with trees and shrubs marked by numbered signs, lies ahead. The numbers on the posts coincide with the points on the map. This 2.1-mile trail is ideal for bicycle riding and gentle strolling. The 4.7-mile rim trail is more rugged, and is well suited for the more ambitious hiker seeking a greater feeling of remoteness. For information about the reservoir, call 284-9669.

The building still stands at 3535 Plaza Way and has been designated as a State Point of Historical Interest; The Wayside Inn, circa 1894, is still standing at 3521 Golden Gate Way and is also a State Point of Historical Interest; Tunnel Road and the precursor to the Caldecott Tunnel served Contra Costa from 1903-1937. It had two narrow lanes that barely permitted hay wagons to pass.

history

Lafayette is an expanding residential community providing a relaxing environment for commuters who work in nearby cities. Presently, Lafayette is the home of more than 20,000 residents.

Lafayette, with its rolling hills and beautiful scenic location, has managed to keep its secluded atmosphere while being within easy commuting distance of nearby metropolitan areas.

Lafayette is located on land that once encompassed an entire Mexican land grant, the Acalanes Rancho, and portions of four other grants. The area was first settled in 1848.

The original land grant was made in 1834 to Candelario Valencia. The third owner of the land, Elam Brown, was the town founder. In establishing the town, Brown built a grist mill in 1853 which moved the center of the farming community toward the present Mt. Diablo-Moraga Road intersection.

The growing town straddled the main thoroughfare which led from the Moraga Redwoods to the lumber shipping point in Martinez. Early Lafayette, which had many names such as Brown's Mill, Brown's Corners, Centerville and La Fayette, became a stopover spot for wagon drivers transporting their loads between the two sites.

Lafayette remained a quiet farming community until post-World War II. The building boom and the expansion of the Caldecott Tunnel turned Lafayette cornfields into housing developments.

Lafayette was officially named in 1855 when Benjamin Shreve, the town's first school teacher, applied for a post office for the community. The city of Lafayette was incorporated in 1968.

The Boardroom

League of Women Voters

The League of Women Voters of Diablo Valley has opened an office at the Lafayette Community Center. Called The Boardroom, the office is intended to serve not only the League, but other non-profit community organizations who need a permanent address and telephone number. A variety of services is available on a permanent or temporary basis: desk and file space, meeting room, telephone answering and mail handling. If your organization would like more information, please call The Boardroom, 283-2335.

Are you registered to vote? If you move, become 18, change your name or party affiliation, you should register or re-register to vote. The deadline is about a month before an election. The League of Women Voters of Diablo Valley provides information on voting. Call 283-2235.

Lafayette Community Center

Where can our social club hold our meetings? Where can our business get together for planning and discussions away from the constant interruptions and treadmill environment associated with the office? Where can a family hold a warm, tasteful wedding reception for their daughter's marriage? Where can civic groups get together to share the interests, fellowship and knowledge which will move Lafayette forward?

The answer to all these questions? A community center.

A community center has long been a dream of Lafayette citizens. As early as 1949, residents conceived of a special facility to nurture, encourage and facilitate the social, educational and recreational interests of the people of our city.

Service club volunteers tackle the tough job of landscaping the Community Center.

Thirty-five years ago, however, a Lafayette Community Center could be little more than a dream. Finding a suitable location seemed virtually impossible. And the cost of constructing an appropriate facility from the ground up put the dream way out of reach.

But, as is often the case when the merits of an idea outweigh the obstacles in its path, the concept of a community center for Lafayette refused to die. And, in January of 1983, when Lafayette's City Council purchased the former Burton School facility from the School Board, that heretofore seemingly impossible dream took on all the aspects of a very practical reality.

Transformation of a 30-year-old grammar school facility into a functional, aesthetically pleasing Community Center, however, doesn't just happen. It takes plans... hard work... and money.

The plans are complete. They call for installation of a new roof with skylights, and conversion of some of the small classrooms into a large multipurpose gathering room. They call for construction of a complete kitchen, and establishment of a Parks & Recreation Department office.

Heating and electrical systems must be modified to achieve energy efficiency. Ceilings must be installed... a parking area developed... patios and outdoor recreation facilities created... and the site must be landscaped. Finally, some of the rooms must be furnished, painted and carpeted.

Lafayette's Central Contra Costa County location puts it in close proximity to all sources of major transportation.

Some of this work has already been completed. But much remains to be done.

Work which has been done was made possible through the commitment of a number of civic-minded organizations and dedicated people. Lafayette's City Council, for instance, believes in the Community Center project...and has backed that belief not only with the purchase of the property but also with an additional $160,000 for improvements.

The State of California believes in our Community Center...and has backed that belief with a grant of $60,000. Other organizations and individuals have made financial contributions, and small armies of volunteers have contributed their skills, time and dedication to help move the project toward completion. The center is located at 500 St. Mary's Road. Currently the Center is the location for several recreational classes and houses offices for the Lafayette Parks and Recreation Department.

Lafayette has approximately 8,000 residences, including 2,500 apartment rental units. Unique to the sloping hillsides here are beautiful views of tree-lined streets and custom built homes. Much of Lafayette includes mature neighborhoods, some established over forty years ago. Although size and type of homes vary in different areas, there are no undesirable residential districts in Lafayette. Throughout the community, from downtown districts to hidden valleys, there is an obvious emphasis placed on preservation of the natural surroundings Lafayette offers.

Lafayette is largely a community of professional people. Teachers, professors from nearby universities, engineers, designers, business executives, doctors and lawyers have chosen Lafayette for their home. Attributes including quality education, physical attractiveness of the setting, close proximity to recreation and cultural centers as well as convenient access to mass transit and highways have much to do with Lafayette's desirability.

school rankings

These rankings are from scores released in November 1984. The tests were given early in 1984.

A 99 ranking indicates the school scored higher than 98 percent of all other California public schools. A one ranking means the school scored lower than 99 percent of the other schools.

shopping

The Lafayette Business District serves residents and visitors with a well-balanced distribution of services and products. The commercial area is primarily a 4-mile strip along Mt. Diablo Boulevard featuring many unusual and quaint specialty shops and restaurants of every variety. Nineteen antique shops, many situated on Brown Avenue, have made Lafayette one of the antique centers of the East Bay Area; there are a total of 36 antique dealers in the City. Lafayette's reputation has grown in the last several years for its first class, uniquely attractive selection of fine restaurants. Be it breakfast in an European-type cafe, lunch under a gazebo of living greenery, dinner in a candelight setting with tuxedo-clad waiters or a late night drink amid local acquaintances and friends in one of Lafayette's many pub-type lounges—food and drink is at its finest in the Lafayette community.

An important part of Lafayette's economy and the beauty of the Downtown Commercial District comes from attractive and vital office complexes. Because one third of the City's annual income is derived from sales tax revenues, the addition of office workers to the City's marketplace is essential. Office workers create a major source of demand for retail goods and services in Lafayette. This is shown through the 1983 study connected by the Lafayette City commissioned Downtown Blue Ribbon committee and summarized on page 34.

John Muir Hospital

John Muir Hospital, 1601 Ygnacio Valley Road in Walnut Creek, 939-3000, is a progressive 267-bed medical center offering medical education and research, as well as patient care.

Opened in 1965 as a 150-bed community hospital, John Muir Memorial Hospital was named for the famed naturalist-environmentalist with whom it shares a common philosophy: An abiding concern for the preservation and quality of life.

Nearly 600 physicians representing a wide range of specialties are members of the John Muir Medical staff which consists of ten departments: anesthesiology, dentistry, emergency medicine, family practice, medicine, obstetrics/gynecology, pathology, pediatrics, radiology and surgery.

A 24-hour licensed basic emergency service provides treatment for urgent medical problems as well as for critical life and limb-threatening situations. All physicians are trained and experienced in emergency medicine.

Physician specialists in every medical specialty serve as back-up and are on-call within 20 minutes of the hospital.

All emergency nurses are certified for Mobile Intensive Care so that via radio communication they can direct paramedics treating patients in the field.

John Muir Hospital is a member of CALSTAR, the Bay Area medical helicopter transport service.

The John Muir Emergi-Center in San Ramon opened in December, 1984 to provide 24-hour medical care every day of the year to the San Ramon Valley communities. It is staffed at all times by a physician and registered nurse. Also at the Center around-the-clock are John Muir paramedics who provide ambulance transport for serious cases. The Emergi-Center is equipped with a helipad and has access to the CALSTAR helicopter.

A comprehensive family-focused program of maternity care includes a Family Birth Center, an operating room within the Center for cesarean deliveries, and an intermediate intensive care nursery for newborns requiring special care. Also available are physicians who specialize in the care of high risk mothers.

Kaiser Permanente

The Kaiser Permanente Medical Center, 1425 South Main Street, Walnut Creek, provides prepaid health care and hospitalization for 219,000 Health Plan members in the Walnut Creek service area.

Licensed hospital bed capacity: 201
Physician-in-Chief:
Irwin R. Fisch, M.D.
Administrator: Kenneth P. Kentch
Number of physicians: 145
Number of employees: 1,200
Main phone number: 943-2000

Outpatient services include: Allergy; Dermatology; Ear, Nose and Throat; Internal Medicine; Laboratory, Mental Health, Neurology, Nuclear Medicine; Obstetrics/Gynecology; Ophthalmology; Optometry; Orthopedics; Pediatrics; Pharmacy; Physical Therapy; Surgery; Urgent Care; Urology and X-Ray.

The 201-bed community hospital features a full-range of services including a 24-hour a day Emergency Room, an active Obstetrics Department and Nursery, Special Care Nursery, Intensive Care and Coronary Care Units and a Hospice Unit.

In addition to primary health care services, the Walnut Creek Medical Center offers a variety of special services to Health Plan members: the Health Education Center, located on the first floor of the Medical Office Building, is open to Health Plan members and the public. The center features a variety of books, pamphlets, films, videotapes and displays on health-related topics.

A team of physicians, nurses, nurse-practitioners and other professionals join forces to offer a variety of classes to members and the community of subjects ranging from diabetes self-care to smoking cessation, stress, teenage sexuality, pre-natal care and more. For more information on the Health Education Center and classes, please call 943-2771.

The Walnut Creek Medical Center is one of 14 Kaiser Permanente Medical Centers and eight Medical Offices in the Northern California region. Locally, members have a choice of two medical centers and two medical offices for their ongoing health care. Both the Walnut Creek and Martinez Medical Centers offer hospitalization plus outpatient visits, while smaller clinics in Pleasanton and Antioch provide outpatient care.

BEDFORD PROPERTIES

Bedford Properties . . . Commitment to Quality

For more than 20 years, Bedford Properties has been a proud partner in the Lafayette community. Changes that were barely a dream then are a reality now. Our company has grown to be a major diversified real estate development and management firm. Our projects range from retail and industrial facilities to multi-story office buildings and business parks. Today we do business in more than two dozen cities nationwide.

Perhaps nowhere are we more proud of our work than right here in our hometown of Lafayette. Our commitment to the community's quality and orderly development is seen in our various projects: Corporate Terrace where we have our own offices; renovation of a landmark building and establishment of Tourelle Cafe & Restaurant; and, in 1986, completion of the Lafayette Terrace office complex.

It is our sincere desire to continue participating in Lafayette's managed growth, helping to create an environment where people can live and work happily and productively.
